

MEDIA ADVISORY – Showcase of Music from Ann Mortifee’s New Musical

VANCOUVER, BC (JUNE 1, 2017) - A showcase of music from Ann Mortifee’s new musical, The Mysteries, will play for one night only. The show is based on an ancient myth. Like a dress rehearsal, but without costumes, sets or staging, a showcase is a vital development step for a major musical. Feedback, photos and sound will be documented in preparation for taking the show to the next level.

Who Ann Mortifee CM is a prolific, award-winning Canadian singer, songwriter, composer and librettist, author and keynote speaker. Her work draws on spiritual traditions from around the world and influences from folk, musical theatre, pop, sacred and world music.

Highlights Opportunity to see a major new musical in development
Powerful 14-voice ensemble and 5 leading musicians
Ann Mortifee will sing in the role of Hekate

How Seating is full, and a waitlist is available: the-mysteries.eventbrite.ca.

When Monday June 12, 2017, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

Location Stanley Industrial Alliance Stage, 2750 Granville Street, Vancouver

More info annmortifee.com

Contact

Barbara Constantine
Communications Director, ESKOVA Enterprises
604-876-0156 | bconstantine@shaw.ca